ANTINEOPLASTIC, IMMUNOGENIC AND OTHER EFFECTS OF THE TETRAPEPTIDE TUFTSIN: A NATURAL MACROPHAGE ACTIVATOR[a]

Editors and Conference Organizers

VICTOR A. NAJJAR AND MATI FRIDKIN

CONTENTS

Part I. Retrospective

Tuftsin, A Natural Activator of Phagocyte Cells: An Overview. By VICTOR A. NAJJAR 1

Part II. Synthesis and Structure

Synthetic Pathways to Tuftsin and Radioimmunoassay. By PHILIP GOTTLIEB, YITZHAK STABINSKY, VERA ZAKUTH, ZVI SPIRER, and MATI FRIDKIN 12

New Synthetic and Natural Tuftsin-related Compounds and Evaluation of Their Phagocytosis-stimulating Activity. By JEAN MARTINEZ and FRANÇOIS WINTERNITZ 23

Elongated Tuftsin Analogues—Synthesis and Biological Investigation. By DANUTA KONOPIŃSKA, MIROSŁAW ŁUCZAK, MAREK WLEKLIK, STANISŁAW GUMUŁKA, and BERNARDA KAZANOWSKA 35

NMR Studies of the Conformation of Tuftsin and a Pentapeptide Tuftsin Inhibitor in Solution. By MICHAEL BLUMENSTEIN 44

Conformational Investigations in the Tuftsin Group. By IGNACY Z. SIEMION, MAREK LISOWSKI, and KATARZYNA SOBCZYK 56

Effect of Tuftsin on the Migration, Chemotaxis, and Differentiation of Macrophages and Granulocytes. By G. F. BABCOCK, A. A. AMOSCATO, and K. NISHIOKA 64

Enhancement of Endogenous Xenotropic Murine Retrovirus Expression by Tuftsin. By WILLIAM A. SUK and CEDRIC W. LONG 75

Part III. General Characteristics of Tuftsin

Purine Salvage Pathway Enzyme Activity in Tuftsin-stimulated Macrophages. By GEORGE L. TRITSCH and PAUL W. NISWANDER 87

[a]These proceedings are the result of a conference entitled Antineoplastic, Immunogenic and Other Effects of the Tetrapeptide Tuftsin: A Natural Macrophage Activator held February 16-17, 1983 by The New York Academy of Sciences.

Tuftsin Receptors. By PHILIP GOTTLIEB, YITZHAK STABINSKY, YAFFA HILLER, ALAIN BERETZ, ELI HAZUM, ESTHER TZEHOVAL, MICHAEL FELDMAN, SHRAGA SEGAL, VERA ZAKUTH, ZVI SPIRER, and MATI FRIDKIN 93

Tuftsin Binding to Various Macrophage Hybridomas. By PHILIP GOTTLIEB, ESTHER TZEHOVAL, MICHAEL FELDMAN, SHRAGA SEGAL, and MATI FRIDKIN 107

Receptor-mediated Internalization of Tuftsin. By ANDREW A. AMOSCATO, PETER J. A. DAVIES, GEORGE F. BABCOCK, and KENJI NISHIOKA 114

The Similarity between Tuftsin (Thr-Lys-Pro-Arg) Receptors and Tuftsin Antibody: A Case of Induced Molecular Mimicry. By MANAS K. CHAUDHURI, DANUTA KONOPIŃSKA, NANCY J. BUMP, and VICTOR A. NAJJAR 135

On the Mechanism of the Augmentation of the Phagocytic Capability of Phagocytic Cells by Tuftsin, Substance P, Neurotensin, and Kentsin and the Interrelationship between Their Receptors. By RACHEL GOLDMAN and ZVI BAR-SHAVIT 143

Central Effects of Tuftsin. By ZBIGNIEW S. HERMAN, ZDZISŁAW STACHURA, TADEUSZ KRZEMIŃSKI, ANDRZEJ PLECH, IGNACY Z. SIEMION, and ELEONORA NAWROCKA 156

The Influence of Tuftsin on Blood Pressure in Animals. By ANDRZEJ PARADOWSKI, IGNACY Z. SIEMION, and MAREK RÓZGA 164

The Function of Tuftsin and Similar Sequences in Other Proteins. By SHRAGA SEGAL, ESTHER TZEHOVAL, and MICHAEL FELDMAN 168

Part IV. Biological and Pharmacological Properties

Immunopharmacological Properties of Tuftsin and of Some Analogues. By I. FLORENTIN, J. MARTINEZ, J. MARAL, M. PELLETIER, V. CHUNG, M. ROCH-ARVEILLER, M. BRULEY-ROSSET, J. P. GIROUD, F. WINTERNITZ, and G. MATHÉ 177

Tuftsin-induced Enhancement of Murine and Human Natural Cell-mediated Cytotoxicity. By J. H. PHILLIPS, K. NISHIOKA, and G. F. BABCOCK 192

A Biochemical Study of the Phagocytic Activities of Tuftsin and Its Analogues. By KAZUHITO HISATSUNE, SUKEKATSU NOZAKI, TOSHIAKI ISHIKAWA, MIKIO HAYASHI, KANEO NOGAKI, and HARUKI OGAWA 205

Congenital Tuftsin Deficiency. By ANDREAS CONSTANTOPOULOS 214

Acquired Tuftsin Deficiency. By Z. SPIRER, V. ZAKUTH, R. ORDA, T. WIZNITZER, W. MONDORF, T. STEFANESCU, and M. FRIDKIN 220

Tuftsin Stimulation of Phagocytosis by the Retinal Pigment Epithelium. By LESLIE J. FISHER, GARTH STEVENS, JR., and PETER M. MCCANN 227

Part V. Antineoplastic Effects of Tuftsin

In Vivo and in Vitro Antitumor Activities of Tuftsin. By KENJI NISHIOKA, GEORGE F. BABCOCK, JOSEPH H. PHILLIPS, RICHARD A. BANKS, and ANDREW A. AMOSCATO 234

Immunorestorative Capacity of Tuftsin after Long-Term Administration to Aging Mice. By M. BRULEY-ROSSET, THIERRY HERCEND, HENRY RAPPAPORT, and GEORGES MATHÉ 242

Toxicology and Antitumor Activity of Tuftsin. By R. CATANE, S. SCHLANGER, L. WEISS, S. PENCHAS, Z. FUKS, A. J. TREVES, P. GOTTLIEB, and M. FRIDKIN 251

The Antineoplastic Effects of Tuftsin and Tuftsinyltuftsin on B16/5B Melanoma and L1210 Cells. By VICTOR A. NAJJAR, LISA LINEHAN, and DANUTA KONOPIŃSKA 261

Potentiation of Antitumor Activity of α-Difluoromethyl Ornithine by the Immunomodulating Peptide Tuftsin. By PRASAD S. SUNKARA, NELLIKUNJA J. PRAKASH, and KENJI NISHIOKA 268
